In our Special Prayers this Week, we pray for:

Robert Bensley, Irene Humphrey, Heidi Barker, Les Large, Rev Alan Wright, Dorothy Cutting, Joan Whitwam, Alice Riches, Annabel, Ellie, Shirley, Brenda Coman, Rosemary West, their families and all those who have care of them.

Pray, at the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Pray too for God's blessing on the Ecumenical Chain of Prayer at the Cathedral on the 18th January. Pray that all ecumenical services taking place this week may strengthen relationships and deepen understanding between different denominations.

We give thanks for the lives of Mr Peter Budgen, Mr Edgar Clarke and Mr Derrick Casson (Cass) and pray for their families at this time.

*People are often unreasonable, irrational and self-centred. Forgive them anyway
If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.
If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.
If you are honest and sincere, people may deceive you. Be honest and sincere anyway.
What you spend years creating, others could destroy overnight. Create anyway.
If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.
The good you do today will often be forgotten. Do good anyway.
Give the best you have, and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway.
In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.*
